Snapchat is one such platform that is successful in keeping our secrets since its launch. You message any snap, memories or photo; they get removed right after its opening. And this privacy feature is being loved by millions of users worldwide.

When it comes to screenshots, the app sends a notification to the user whose screenshot has been taken. Because of this anti-screenshot feature, people are quite baffled and look for different ways on How to screenshot on Snapchat without them knowing in 2022?

Thankfully, some methods make it possible & let you take a sneak peek into someone's Snapchat secretly without notifying them.

How To Screenshot On Snapchat Without Notifying Them 2022? (Android/iOS)

There are few tricks that you can consider separately on iPhone and Android to take a screenshot on Snapchat secretly.

Trick 1: Use Another Smartphone

If you are desperate to capture & save someone else's Snapchat story, then use another device to take a picture of a particular snap before it self-destructs. Well, the quality won't be surprising, but it depends on how you keep your hands steady to capture a decent shot.

Trick 2: Use Screen Capture Tool

Using this method, you cannot only capture the screenshot on Snapchat without them knowing but can also record the story videos without notifying them. If your smartphone offers a built-in Screen Capture tool, then you can use it the usual way to capture a Snapchat story. You can even download third-party Screen Capturing Apps for Android or iPhone to take screenshots of Snapchat story.

Trick 3: Using Third-Party Apps To Capture Screenshots Without Notifying

Similar to WhatsApp Status Savers, several exciting apps in the market lets users take screenshots of Snapchat stories without them knowing. Try installing SnapSaver on your device & follow the instructions step by step:

- Launch SnapSaver on your device.
- Follow the on-screen instructions to understand how the app works to screenshot on Snapchat secretly.
- Tap on the Camera icon to select the option to capture screenshots.
- Additionally, you can start screen recording, capture burst screenshots & more.
- After selecting the desired option, tap on the play icon to activate the floating settings.
- Now go to the Snap that you would like to capture screenshots without notifying the other user.
- Tap on the red floating camera icon to screenshot the Snapchat story.

Trick 4: Kill The Snapchat App Instantly

In most of the cases, it has worked efficiently to screenshot on Snapchat without them knowing. Just follow this method carefully to capture snaps without notifying the other user:

- Once the Snap is loaded, get ready, check the top and see if you have time left.
- Take the screenshot quickly and kill the app instantly.

Mind you, this method is pretty risky as in case you get a little late to crash the app, a notification can be sent to the other side, and you don't want that.

Trick 5: Capture Screenshot From Recent Apps Section

Although this method won't help you capture the story in full size, you can still keep some part of the Snap. This method is perfect for keeping the chat messages in the form of screenshots. You can undoubtedly ditch the notification “___ took a screenshot of chat” using this method. Just follow the hack step by step to screenshot on Snapchat without them knowing.

- Open the chat on Snapchat of which you would like to take a screenshot.
- Now press the recent app button, where all the recently used apps get displayed.
- Screenshot the chat quickly & close the apps.

The Snapchat screenshot would look something like above. You can further crop the screenshot & save someone's Snap secretly in your gallery.

Trick 6: Using Screen Mirroring Feature

If you desperately need to capture someone's story & don't want to notify them, use this Snapchat hack to get the job done. Now, this method would require little work, but if done correctly, you can take a Screenshot on Snapchat without them knowing. You have to enable the Screen Mirroring feature from your phone's settings to cast your phone on an external device.

If your smartphone doesn't feature such functionality, don't feel bad, as there are numerous apps available in the market that can help you cast your Android or iPhone to an external device such as a Smart TV. When it's done, you have to launch Snapchat on your phone & take another device to record or capture a screenshot of someone else's Snapchat Story from the external device.

Trick 7: Ask Google Assistant

Now many of them say that clearing cache, and taking a screenshot later can help in taking shots without letting the other side know. This method has gone outdated, but Google Assistant can trick Snapchat. Also, it would work for Android users only.

After opening the chat, say “OK Google” and “Take a screenshot”. You can later save this screenshot on your phone or share it with other apps. Snapchat cannot detect this way of capturing a screenshot, and no alert message would be sent.

Trick 8: Delay The Screenshot Notification

Well, you should be very quick at performing this trick; otherwise, the concerned person will instantly know that you've secretly screenshotted their Snapchat story. Just follow the hack step by step:

- Go to the Snap of which you want to capture a screenshot.
- Make sure it loads correctly. (Keep patience after receiving the Snap & let it load).
- Now turn off the WI-FI, Mobile Network & Bluetooth.
- Turn On the Airplane Mode & make sure your phone isn't connected.
- Go back to the snap & capture screenshot the usual way.
- Now be quick & reboot/restart your device as soon as possible.
- Be fast & let your phone get restarted.

Now you can observe the screenshot you took should have reloaded to normal as if you had never opened it in the first place.

The person whose story has been screenshotted would not receive a pop-up notification that someone has taken a screenshot & not screenshot indicator (a double-arrow icon) will be displayed for a few minutes. But once you see their next Snap, a 'screenshot message' will appear in their chat. So, if the person you screenshot is super unobservant, you can quickly get away with your screenshot game on Snapchat!
